

Change Readiness Bootcamp

Are you in a job transition or about to enter into a transition?

This can be a scary, stressful, uncertain time. Change is hard but change can also be just what's needed.

Peg Stookey calls herself a Change Catalyst and wants to help YOU be Change Ready & Resilient! Over the past 20 years, she's helped hundreds of people navigate career change and come out on the other side; happier and more confident than they've ever been.

Peg's battle cry for her Change Readiness program is,

This time of change is a gift of time!

Change Readiness is more than having an optimized resume and LinkedIn profile, although those two personal marketing elements are critical. It's much more about being CONFIDENT in your ability to explore, create, decide and then, to be ready to begin your new future.

One of the gifts of change that Peg speaks about is that once you learn her Change Readiness process, you'll never be blindsided again! And, once you gain this new confidence, it'll be there when you most need it. Plus, once you land, you'll be able to use these new skills and your renewed confidence level to increase the leadership value that you bring to your new position. In other words....

Change Readiness leads to your ability to Start Strong and Stay Strong!

You're invited to join us for Peg's next Change Readiness Bootcamp!
